

The Great Fire of London

A variety of original and replica objects to support a depth study of the Great Fire of London in 1666. The resource contains supplementary information about the context and effects of the fire, alongside significant figures of the period.

Also included is a timeline, book of suggested activities and an information card for each object. These are all securely packed in conservation standard museum cases.

The resource contains the following objects

A Staffordshire slipware pot, the death warrant for Charles I, original coins from the period, a leather fireman's helmet, an original cannon ball, leather fire hose, clay pipe, seal of Charles II, fire extinguisher, ink pot and quill, bread peel and wooden tankard.

The resource can be used to meet the requirements of the national curriculum for history in the following areas of subject content:

- KS1 Events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally
- KS2 A study of an aspect of theme in British History that extends pupil's chronological knowledge beyond 1066
- KS3 The development of Church, state and society in Britain 1509-1745

The activity pack and supporting information contains activities and information that can be used to meet the requirements of the national curriculum for English, art and design, geography and drama at KS1 to 3.

You can see more information about our service on our website www.nottinghamheritage.org.uk/accessartefacts

If you would like to book the resource or would like further information please call us on (0115) 8762194 or email access.artefacts@nottinghamcity.gov.uk

The resources made the topic come alive...real 'wow' moments when they were brought out! - Year 3 teacher, Middleton Primary

A great way of explaining primary and secondary sources...we could tell the story of the topic through the objects - Year 5 teacher, Arnbrook Primary